

THE CHILDREN'S BILL

Bill No. 29 of 2019

Government Gazette of Mauritius No. 98 of 21 September 2019

THE CHILDREN'S BILL

(No. XXIX of 2019)

Explanatory Memorandum

The main object of this Bill is to repeal the Child Protection Act and replace it with a more appropriate, comprehensive and modern legislative framework so as to better protect children and to give better effect to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child.

- 2. The Bill accordingly makes provisions –
- (a) for the better care, protection and assistance to children and their families;
 - (b) for the respect and promotion of the rights and best interests of children;
 - (c) for the setting up of structures, services and means for promoting and monitoring the sound, physical, psychological, intellectual, emotional and social development of children;
 - (d) for children under the age of 12 not to be held criminally responsible for any act or omission;
 - (e) for child witnesses and child victims under the age of 14 to be, subject to certain conditions, competent as witnesses without the need for them to take the oath or making solemn affirmation;
 - (f) for the setting up of a Children's Court, which shall consist of a Civil Division, a Protection Division and a Criminal Division; and

- (g) for addressing the shortcomings in the Child Protection Act.

(g) Subject to this section, the Panel shall regulate its meetings in such manner as it may determine.

PART II – BEST INTERESTS AND PROTECTION OF CHILDREN

Sub-Part I – Best Interests of Children

5. Best interests principles

(1) The best interests of a child shall, in respect of any matter concerning the child, be paramount and be the primary consideration by any person, Court, institution or other body.

(2) Subject to this Act and any other enactment applicable to children, every person, every Court, every institution or any other body shall, in relation to any matter concerning a child –

(a) respect, protect, promote and fulfil the rights and the best interests of the child;

(b) respect the inherent dignity of the child;

(c) treat the child fairly and equitably;

(d) protect the child from discrimination;

(e) bear in mind the needs of the child for his development, including any special needs which may be due to a disability;

- (f) where appropriate, give the child's family member an opportunity to express his views;
- (g) as far as possible, act promptly;
- (h) where the child has to be removed from the custody of his parents, have regard to the desirability of –
 - (i) placing him with a family member;
 - (ii) placing siblings together; and
- (i) where appropriate –
 - (i) adopt an approach which is conducive to conciliation;
 - (ii) have regard to the age, maturity and stage of development of the child and inform the child of the outcome of any proceedings, act or decision relating to him;
 - (iii) have regard to the views and preferences of the child;
 - (iv) inform any person having parental responsibilities and rights in respect of the child of the outcome of any proceedings, act or decision relating to him; and
 - (v) have regard to the capacity of the parents or any other person to provide for the financial, emotional or other needs of the child.

6. Recording of statements from children

- (1) Every statement recorded from a child during a criminal investigation shall be recorded by a specially trained police officer, in presence of the parent of a child.

(2) Where the supervising officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the best interests of a child so require, a statement may, in the presence of an authorised officer, be recorded from him in the absence or without the consent of his parent.

7. Child whose birth has not been registered

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, a child shall not, as far as reasonably practicable, be denied access to any public service or facility on account of the fact that his birth has not been registered in accordance with the Civil Status Act.

(2) Where the birth of a child of more than 45 days has not been registered and an application under section 14(3) of the Civil Status Act is made by the supervising officer, the Registrar of Civil Status may issue a document to that effect to his parent to enable the child to have access to such public service and facility as the Minister may approve.

Sub-Part II – Protection of Children

8. Non-discrimination

(1) No person shall discriminate against a child on the ground of the child's, or the child's parent's, race, caste, place of origin, political opinion, colour, creed, sex, language, religion, property or disability.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

(a) for a period not exceeding 5 years in the case of any offender; or

(b) for a period not exceeding 10 years where the offender is the parent of the child.

(2) Where an offence has been committed by the father or mother of the child under this Part, the offender shall also be deprived of the rights and advantages which are granted to him or her, upon the person and property of the child, by articles 371 to 387 of the Code Civil Mauricien.

PART III – CHILDREN IN NEED OF CARE AND PROTECTION

Sub-Part I – Care and Protection

27. Care and protection

For the purposes of this Act, a child shall be considered to be in need of care and protection where –

(a) the child is abandoned or orphaned without any visible means of support;

- (b) the child lives in, or is exposed to, circumstances which may seriously harm his physical, mental or social well-being;
- (c) the child is neglected or ill-treated;
- (d) the child has been, or is likely to be, exposed to harm;
- (e) the child is exploited or lives in circumstances which expose him to exploitation;
- (f) the child is found begging or receiving alms; or
- (g) the child's parent is convicted of an offence under this Act or under section 249 or 250 of the Criminal Code.

28. Reporting procedure

(1) Where a person has reasonable grounds to believe that a child has been, or is likely to be, exposed to harm, he shall forthwith report the matter to the police.

(2) Where a matter is reported to the police under subsection (1), the matter shall, as soon as possible, be referred to the supervising officer for investigation and assessment of the child's need of care and protection.

(3) (a) Where the supervising officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that an offence has been or is being committed, he shall refer the matter to the police for the purpose of conducting a criminal investigation.

(b) A criminal investigation by the police shall not preclude the supervising officer from also referring the matter to an authorised officer for assessment of the child's need of care and protection.

(c) Notwithstanding the fact that –

- (i) the police refers the matter to the supervising officer under subsection (2);

- (ii) the child is not willing to make a disclosure or to give a statement to the police; or
- (iii) a report is made to the police anonymously, the police shall conduct a criminal investigation where it has reasonable grounds to suspect that an offence has been or is being committed.

(4) An authorised officer shall submit a report of his investigation and assessment to the supervising officer not later than 15 days after the matter is referred to him.

(5) The supervising officer may, pending the report of an authorised officer, take such measures or provide such assistance as he considers necessary, in the circumstances, for the care and protection of the child.

(6) (a) On receipt of a report from an authorised officer, the supervising officer shall consider the report and where possible and in the best interests of the child, take such measures, or provide such assistance to the child and his family, as he considers necessary.

(b) The supervising officer may refer the matter to the police where he has reasonable grounds to suspect that an offence may have been committed.

(7) For the purpose of this section, the police or an authorised officer shall interview a child in the presence of his parent.

(8) Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that consent obtained under subsection (7) may increase the threat of harm to the child or another person, the police shall interview the child in the presence of an authorised officer.

(9) An interview carried out under this section may take place at an educational institution, a hospital, a police station or such other place where the child is present.

(10) Where a child is present at an educational institution, the person in charge of the educational institution shall, upon request of the police or the authorised officer, allow him to meet with and interview the child.

29. Mandatory reporting by person performing professional or official duties

(1) (a) Any person who performs professional or official duties with respect to children and who has reasonable grounds to believe that a child is in contact with has been, or is likely to be, exposed to harm, shall report the matter to the police.

(b) Where a matter is reported to the police under paragraph (a), the police shall forthwith notify the supervising officer where it considers that the child is in need of care and protection.

(2) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

(3) In this section –

“professional or official duties” means duties performed by –

- (a) health care professionals, including medical practitioners, nurses, dentists, pharmacists and occupational therapists and administrators of hospital facilities;
- (b) psychologists;
- (c) employees of educational institutions, reform institutions, places of safety or childcare institutions;
- (d) social workers and family counsellors, psychotherapists, probation officers, mediators, guardians ad litem, support persons and intermediaries; or

- (e) any other person who, by virtue of his employment, profession or occupation, has a responsibility to discharge a duty of care and support towards a child.

30. Disclosure of reporter's identity

(1) (a) Where a matter is reported to the police or to the supervising officer, as the case may be, under section 28 or 29, the confidentiality of the report shall be maintained.

(b) Subject to subsection (2), the identity of the reporter shall be specifically protected from disclosure.

(c) The protection under paragraph (b) shall be maintained even if other information from the report is disclosed.

(2) The release of the reporter's identity shall be allowed where –

- (a) a Court decides that it is necessary in the interests of justice for his identity to be disclosed;
- (b) the reporter knowingly made a false report; or
- (c) the reporter has waived confidentiality and given consent to the disclosure of his identity.

(3) No civil, criminal, or disciplinary proceedings shall be instituted against any person in respect of the disclosure or supply by that person of information under this section concerning a child, whether or not that information also concerns any other person or witness, unless the information was disclosed or supplied in bad faith.

31. Referral by Court to supervising officer or police

Where it appears to any Court in the course of proceedings that a child involved in or affected by those proceedings is in need of care and protection, the Court shall order that the question of whether the child is in need of care and protection be referred to the supervising officer or to the police for an investigation.

Sub-Part II – Care and Protection Orders

32. Assessment order

(1) The supervising officer may, in such form as may be prescribed, make an application to the Protection Division of the Children's Court for an assessment order where he has reasonable grounds to believe that –

- (a) an assessment of a child's health or development, or the way in which the child has been treated, is required to enable him to determine the type of assistance to be provided to the child or his family; and
- (b) it is unlikely that such an assessment will be made, or be satisfactory, in the absence of an assessment order made under this section.

(2) Where the Magistrate is satisfied, pursuant to subsection (1), that it is in the best interests of the child, he may make an assessment order in such form as may be prescribed.

(3) An assessment order may provide for –

- (a) an authorised officer to –
 - (i) enter, at any reasonable time and with or without prior notice, any premises where the child is or was living, or such other place that the child usually visits;
 - (ii) interview the child without the consent of, or in the absence of, his parent;
 - (iii) require any person who provides health, social, educational or other services to the child or to the parent of the child to provide information in relation to those services;
 - (iv) arrange for an examination of the physical, mental or emotional condition and development of the child;

- (v) request, with the consent of the parent of the child, that parent to undergo an examination of his physical, mental or emotional condition or any other assessment related to the parenting and care of the child;
 - (vi) direct the parent of the child not to have any direct or indirect contact with the child on his own, unless a specified person or a person of a specified category is present;
 - (vii) require the parent of the child or any other person who cares for the child to attend an interview;
 - (viii) take such other appropriate action as the authorised officer considers to be in the best interests of the child; and
- (b) any other direction or the imposition of any other condition which he considers to be in the best interests of the child.

(4) Where the parent of a child rejects, ignores or resists a lawful request by an authorised officer made under the assessment order, the authorised officer may refer the matter to the police for assistance in order to compel the parent with the request made under the assessment order.

(5) An assessment order shall be valid for a period of 14 days but may, on an application made by the supervising officer, be extended by the Magistrate for a further period of 14 days.

(6) (a) An application for an assessment order shall be reviewed and a decision shall be made by the Magistrate not later than 48 hours after the date of submission of the application.

(b) An application for the extension of an assessment order shall be reviewed and a decision shall be made by the Magistrate not later than 72 hours after the date of submission of the application.

(7) Notwithstanding this section, where, on an application made for an assessment order, the Magistrate is satisfied, pursuant to section 33(1), that it is in the best interests of the child, he shall make an emergency protection order in lieu of an assessment order.

(8) Any medical examination carried out under this section may include the taking and analysis of samples or the use of any device to assist in the examination.

33. Emergency protection order

(1) The supervising officer may, in such form as may be prescribed, apply to the Protection Division of the Children's Court for an emergency protection order where he has reasonable grounds to believe that –

- (a) a child is suffering or is likely to suffer harm; and
- (b) the placement of the child in alternative care is necessary.

(2) Where the Magistrate is satisfied, pursuant to subsection (1), that it is in the best interests of the child, he may make an emergency protection order in such form as may be prescribed.

(3) An emergency protection order may provide for –

- (a) an authorised officer to –
 - (i) summon any person to provide information for the purpose of verifying whether the child is suffering or is likely to suffer harm;
 - (ii) remove the child from, or return the child to, or prevent the child's removal from, a place of safety;
 - (iii) cause, where necessary for the welfare of the child, the child to be submitted to medical examination or urgent treatment;

- (iv) request police or medical assistance for the exercise of any power under the order;
 - (v) take such other appropriate action as the authorised officer considers to be in the best interests of the child;
- (b) the supervising officer to submit details to the Magistrate on the place of safety;
- (c) the child to be placed with a family member who is willing and able to care for the child; or
- (d) such other direction, or the imposition of such other condition, as the Magistrate considers to be in the best interests of the child.

(4) Where the parent of a child rejects, ignores or resists a lawful request by an authorised officer made under the emergency protection order, the authorised officer may refer the matter to the police for assistance in order to compel the parent with the request made under the assessment order.

(5) The owner, occupier or person in charge of any premises which an authorised officer enters under this section shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance to the authorised officer for the exercise of his powers under the emergency protection order.

(6) An emergency protection order shall be reviewed and a decision shall be made by the Magistrate not later than 48 hours after the date of the submission of the application.

(7) (a) An emergency protection order shall be valid for a period of 21 days.

(b) An emergency protection order may, on an application made by the supervising officer, be renewed for a further period of 21 days where the Magistrate is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child.

(c) Where the need for protection is reasonably likely to continue beyond the expiry of the emergency protection order, an application shall be made for a placement order under section 34.

(8) (a) The parent of a child may, at any time, apply for the discharge of the emergency protection order made under this section.

(b) The Magistrate may discharge the emergency protection order where he is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child to do so.

34. Placement order

(1) The supervising officer may, in such form as may be prescribed, apply to the Protection Division of the Children's Court for a placement order where he has reasonable grounds to believe that –

(a) a child is in need of care and protection; and

(b) it is in the best interests of the child to be in a place of safety.

(2) On an application under subsection (1), the Magistrate –

(a) may make an interim placement order for the child to be placed in a place of safety for a period not exceeding 14 days and he may extend the interim placement until the final determination of the application;

(b) shall order an investigation and report by an authorised officer regarding the child's family background, general conduct and home surroundings, to enable him to deal with the case in the best interests of the child; and

(c) may request that the child be medically examined.

(3) The Magistrate shall, when considering an application for a placement order –

(a) consider the care plan prepared under section 38(1)(b);

(b) consider any arrangement which the supervising officer has made, or proposes to make, for affording any person contact with the child; and

(c) invite any party to the proceedings to comment on those arrangements.

(4) Where, after hearing evidence, including that of the parent of the child, the Magistrate is satisfied, pursuant to subsection (1), that it is in the best interests of the child, he may make a placement order, in such form as may be prescribed, for the child to be placed in a place of safety for an initial period not exceeding one year.

(5) A Magistrate may, on the application of the supervising officer, the child concerned or the parent of the child, vary or discharge an order made under this section where he is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child to do so.

(6) Subject to section 36, a placement order –

(a) may be renewed, provided the total placement period does not exceed 3 years;

(b) shall not be made more than 3 months after the date of lodging of the application, except where it is in the best interests of the child to do so.

(7) As far as possible, preference shall be given to placement in non- institutional alternative care, including, but not limited to, a foster home.

(8) Where an application for a placement order indicates that the child shall be placed in institutional alternative care, the supervising officer shall provide evidence to the Magistrate's satisfaction that placement in non-institutional alternative care cannot be found within a reasonable period of time.

(9) Where a child is placed in institutional alternative care under a placement order and an opportunity arises during the period of validity of the placement order for transfer to non-institutional alternative care, the supervising officer shall immediately apply to the Magistrate for a variation of the placement order so that the child can be transferred to non-institutional alternative care.

35. Ancillary orders

A Magistrate of the Protection Division of the Children's Court may, further to an assessment order, an emergency protection order or a placement order, make any of the following ancillary orders –

- (a) a placement in alternative care, including an order for placing the child in the care of a person designated by the Magistrate to be the foster parent of the child;
- (b) a parenting aide order, providing such parenting aide as may be designated by the supervising officer;
- (c) a supervision order of such duration as the Magistrate may determine, placing the child, or the parent of the child, or both, under the supervision of an authorised officer;
- (d) an order –
 - (i) giving consent to medical treatment of, or to an operation to be performed on, the child;
 - (ii) instructing the child or his parent to undergo professional counselling, or to participate in mediation, a family group conference or any other appropriate problem solving forum;
 - (iii) instructing the child or his parent, or any other person involved in the matter concerning the child, to undergo a professional assessment;
 - (iv) limiting access of a person to the child or prohibiting a person from contacting the child; or
 - (v) allowing a person to contact the child subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order.

36. Long-term care order

(1) Where the supervising officer considers that it is in the best interests of a child to stay in alternative care placement for a period exceeding 3 years, the supervising officer shall, in such form as may be prescribed, apply to the Protection Division of the Children's Court for a long-term care order for the child to be placed in long-term care.

(2) On an application under subsection (1), the Magistrate –

(a) shall order an investigation and report by an authorised officer regarding the child's family background, general conduct and home surroundings, to enable him to deal with the case in the best interests of the child; and

(b) may order the child to be medically examined.

(3) The Magistrate shall, when considering an application for a long-term care order –

(a) consider the care plan prepared under section 38(1)(b);

(b) consider any arrangement which the supervising officer has made, or proposes to make, for affording any person contact with the child; and

(c) invite any party to the proceedings to comment on those arrangements.

(4) Where, after hearing evidence, including that of the parent of the child, the Magistrate is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child, he may make a long-term care order, in such form as may be prescribed, for the child to be placed in a place of safety for a period not exceeding 3 years.

(5) A Magistrate may, on the application of the supervising officer or the parent of the child, vary or discharge an order made under this section where he is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child to do so.

(6) As far as possible, preference shall be given to placement in non- institutional alternative care, including, but not limited to, a foster home.

(7) Where an application for a long-term care order indicates that the child shall be placed in institutional alternative care, the supervising officer shall provide evidence to the

Magistrate's satisfaction that placement in non- institutional alternative care cannot be found within a reasonable period of time.

(8) Where a child is placed in institutional alternative care under a long- term care order and an opportunity arises during the period of validity of the order for transfer to non- institutional alternative care, the supervising officer shall immediately apply to the Magistrate for a variation of the long-term care order so that the child can be transferred to non- institutional alternative care.

37. Contact order

(1) Any –

- (a) parent, unless that parent can no longer exercise his parental rights;
- (b) person having parental responsibility in respect of a child;
- (c) person who, by order of a Court, had a child's custody or care immediately before a placement order or a long-term care order was made;
- (d) other person, who wishes to have contact with a child who has been placed pursuant to a placement order or long-term care order, may apply to the Protection Division of the Children's Court for a contact order authorising him to have contact with the child.

(2) (a) The supervising officer may, where he considers that it is in the best interests of a child who has been placed pursuant to a placement order or long-term care order, apply to the Protection Division of the Children's Court for –

- (i) such order as he considers appropriate with respect to the contact which is to be allowed between the child and any person;
- (ii) an order authorising him to refuse contact between a child and any person referred to in subsection (1).

(b) The Magistrate shall, when considering an application under this subsection, consider the care plan prepared under section 38(1)(b).

(3) On an application made under this section, a Magistrate may, where he is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child, make –

- (a) such order as he considers appropriate with respect to the contact which is to be allowed between the child and any person, specifying the conditions of such contact, where appropriate; or
- (b) an order authorising the supervising officer to refuse to allow contact between the child and any person referred to in subsection (1)(a) to (d).

(4) A decision to allow contact under this section shall not be made against the will of the child depending on the age, the maturity and the mental capacity of the child to understand the benefits, risks, social and other implications, as assessed by a psychologist of the Ministry.

(5) Where a contact order has been granted by the Magistrate and at the time of executing the order, it is no longer in the best interests of the child, the supervising officer may refuse to allow contact with the child and seek a variation or discharge of the order.

(6) A Magistrate making an order under this section may impose such conditions as he may determine.

(7) A Magistrate may, on the application of the supervising officer or a person named in the order, vary or discharge an order made under this section where he is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child to do so.

(8) An order under this section may be made at the same time or after a placement order or a long-term care order is made.

38. Care plan

(1) The supervising officer shall cause an authorised officer to prepare a care plan in relation to the child where –

- (a) an assessment order or emergency protection order has been made; and
- (b) the supervising officer intends to make an application for a placement order, for contact to be allowed between a child and any person or for a long-term care order.

(2) The care plan referred to in subsection (1) shall specify –

- (a) the needs of the child; and
- (b) the measures to be taken to address those needs.

(3) Any care plan prepared under subsection (1)(b) shall be submitted to the Magistrate, together with the application for a placement order, contact order or a long-term care order, as the case may be.

Sub-Part III – Child in Need of Direction and Support

39. Child mentor

(1) No person shall act as a child mentor under this Sub-part unless he is registered as such with the supervising officer.

(2) Every person who wishes to act as a child mentor shall apply to the supervising officer, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, for registration as a child mentor.

(3) (a) A potential child mentor shall, by the order of the supervising officer, undergo a medical examination and mental health screening.

(b) The mental health screening referred to in paragraph (a) shall be carried out by a Government psychiatrist or psychologist of the Ministry as may be designated by the supervising officer.

(4) The supervising officer shall register a person as child mentor where that person –

- (a) meets such requirements as may be prescribed; and
- (b) is found to be physically and psychologically fit following the medical examination and mental health screening carried out under subsection (3).

(5) (a) Participation in a mentoring scheme as a child mentor shall be voluntary.

(b) The supervising officer shall only apply for a mentoring order after he has received the informed consent form duly signed by the proposed child mentor.

- (c) A child mentor shall not mentor more than 3 children at a time.

(6) A child mentor shall –

- (a) receive mandatory training by the Ministry prior to commencing responsibilities as a child mentor; and
- (b) be paid such allowance as may be prescribed.

40. Mentoring order

(1) The supervising officer may, in such manner as may be prescribed, apply to the Protection Division of the Children's Court for a mentoring order where he has reasonable grounds to believe that a child exhibits mild behavioural concerns and –

- (a) the child does not receive assistance or support;
- (b) the parent of the child is refusing, or unable, to provide the child with the assistance and support that he needs; and

(c) there is no alternative means of providing assistance and support to the child.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to a child with psychiatric condition.

(3) An application under subsection (1) shall, where appropriate, be accompanied by –

- (a) a social enquiry report;
- (b) a psychological report;
- (c) the name of the proposed child mentor; and
- (d) such other information or document as may be relevant in the circumstances.

(4) On receipt of an application, the Magistrate shall cause a notice of the application to be served on the parent of the child, requiring him to appear before the Children's Court on such day and time as may be specified in the notice, to show cause why the mentoring order applied for should not be made.

(5) The Magistrate may, for the purpose of determining the application, summon and examine –

- (a) the parent of the child;
- (b) the proposed child mentor identified in the application in order to ascertain his suitability as a child mentor in the particular case;
- (c) such other person as he may determine in order to obtain any other information or report which he considers necessary.

(6) The Magistrate shall, in determining an application, have regard to any relevant factor, including –

- (a) whether it is imperative that the child should be subject to the mentoring order;

- (b) whether there is any alternative means of providing assistance and support to the child;
- (c) any undertaking given or measures taken by the parent of the child to provide the child with the required assistance and support; and
- (d) any hardship that may be caused to the child or the parent of the child as a result of the mentoring order.

(7) (a) Where the Magistrate is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child, he may make a mentoring order which shall –

- (i) specify the name of the child mentor;
- (ii) specify the details of the mentoring plan, including its overall duration, the frequency of meetings between the mentor and the child and the time and place where the meetings shall take place; and
- (iii) where appropriate, make provision for such other orders and give such directions as he may consider appropriate to the supervising officer, the child mentor or the parent of the child.

(b) (i) A mentoring order shall remain in force for such period not exceeding 12 months as the Magistrate may determine.

(ii) Upon application made to the Magistrate, a mentoring order may be extended by such further period, not exceeding 12 months, as the Magistrate may determine.

(c) (i) The supervising officer or the parent of the child may, at any time, apply for a variation or discharge of the mentoring order, including the substitution of a child mentor by another child mentor.

(ii) The Magistrate may vary or discharge a mentoring order, or substitute a child mentor by another child mentor, where he is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child to do so.

(8) (a) During the period of validity of a mentoring order, the supervising officer or an authorised officer may enter any premises for the purpose of supervising any mentoring.

(b) Any owner, occupier or person in charge of any premises shall make available to the supervising officer or an authorised officer all reasonable facilities and assistance to enable him to effectively supervise any mentoring.

(9) The parent of a child, or any person having an influence, control or authority on a child subject of a mentoring order shall, where so requested, provide such assistance as is possible to the child mentor to enable him to effectively discharge his duties.

(10) A Magistrate may, where he considers appropriate, direct that a report on compliance with a mentoring order shall be filed with the Children's Court at such regular intervals as he may determine or at the expiry of the order.

Sub-Part IV – Children with Serious Behavioural Concerns

41. Children with serious behavioural concerns

(1) Where –

(a) a child has exhibited a pattern of serious hostile, aggressive or disruptive behaviour to such an extent that the said behaviour seriously interferes with the care and development of the child; and

(b) (i) the child has exhibited antisocial behaviour;

(ii) the child absents himself regularly from his residence without the permission of his parent; or

(iii) the child has exhibited a pattern of frequent or extended unjustified absences from school, the child's parent or the police, as the case may be, may, subject to subsection (2), apply, in such form as may be prescribed, to the Protection Division of the Children's Court for a finding that serious behavioural concerns exist which need to be addressed.

(2) (a) The child's parent or the police shall, before making an application under subsection (1), lodge, with the supervising officer, an application for parenting support intervention so as to assist the parent in discharging his parental duties with respect to the management of the child's behaviour.

(b) The Ministry shall –

(i) conduct an initial assessment of the situation;

(ii) draw up a parenting support intervention plan including at least 2 home visits by a parenting aide; and

(iii) conduct a follow-up assessment not later than 21 days.

(c) The supervising officer shall, at the end of the period of 21 days referred to in paragraph (b)(iii), issue a letter certifying that a parenting support intervention has been completed, whether or not such intervention has been successful.

42. Determination of serious behavioural concerns

(1) Where the parenting support intervention under section 41 has not been successful, the Magistrate shall hear the parties concerned, in the presence of the Ministry, and determine whether there are serious behavioural concerns which need to be addressed.

(2) (a) Where the Magistrate finds that there are serious behavioural concerns, he shall order a comprehensive psycho-social enquiry of the child and his family environment.

(b) The enquiry referred to in paragraph (a) shall be conducted by the Ministry responsible for the subject of probation and aftercare.

(3) The Magistrate shall consider the report of the psycho-social enquiry to determine whether the child has serious behavioural concerns which needs to be addressed.

(4) Where the Magistrate determines that the child has serious behavioural concerns, he may issue an order, with or without a requirement that the child shall –

- (a) attend school or a specified place on specified days;
- (b) not leave the place where he is to reside outside permitted hours and without the permission of his parent or intervention supervisor, as the case may be;
- (c) follow, where applicable, such drug or alcohol treatment or mental health counselling plan as may be specified;
- (d) refrain from associating with such persons as may be specified;
- (e) refrain from engaging in such behaviour as may be specified;
- (f) participate in such group activities, including counselling, as may be specified;
- (g) be allowed to have contact with his parent; and
- (h) comply with such other order as the Magistrate may determine.

(5) (a) In determining the requirements of a preventive intervention order, the Magistrate shall give priority consideration not to remove the child from his usual household insofar as it is in the best interests of the child.

(b) Where, pursuant to paragraph (a), the Magistrate does not remove a child from his usual household, preventive intervention shall –

- (i) be conducted by an officer of the Ministry responsible for the subject of probation and aftercare; and
- (ii) follow an individualised supervision plan based on the specific needs and risks of the child.

(6) Where the Magistrate considers that it would not be in the best interests of the child to continue to reside at his usual household, he may direct that the child resides at a specified place.

(7) In this section –

“specified place” –

(a) means a group home specialised in handling children with behavioural issues, mental health problems, drug or alcohol related issues; and

(b) does not include institutions for juvenile offenders.

PART IV – CHILD OFFENDERS, CHILD VICTIMS AND CHILD WITNESSES

Sub-Part I – Child Offenders

Section A – Criminal Responsibility of Children

43. Child under 12 not criminally responsible

A child under the age of 12 shall not be held criminally responsible for any act or omission.

44. Procedure regarding child under 12 suspected of having committed an offence

(1) Where a police officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that a child under the age of 12 has committed an offence, he shall, notwithstanding any other enactment, not arrest the child but shall conduct an enquiry and shall immediately –

(a) hand over the child to –

(i) his parent; or

(ii) a probation officer, where his parent is not available or where it is not in the best interests of the child to be handed over to his parent;

- (b) refer the child to a probation officer for assessment; and
- (c) refer the child to a psychologist of the Ministry to assess the state of mind of the child at the time of the commission of the offence.

(2) Where a child is referred to a probation officer under subsection (1)(b), the probation officer shall, not later than 7 days after the child has been referred to him, conduct an assessment in accordance with section 45 to establish the circumstances which led the child to commit the offence.

(3) After assessing the child, the probation officer may –

- (a) refer the child for counselling or therapy;
- (b) arrange for the child to access support services designed specifically to suit the needs of children under the age of 12, other than psychological services;
- (c) arrange a meeting, which shall be attended by the child and his parent, and which may be attended by any other person likely to provide information for the purpose of the meeting; or
- (d) decide to take no action.

(4) The purpose of the meeting referred to in subsection (3)(c) shall be to –

- (a) assist the probation officer in establishing more comprehensively the circumstances which led the child to commit the offence; and
- (b) develop and adopt a written plan of intervention which shall meet the specific needs of the child concerned given the circumstances established under paragraph (a).

(5) The plan of intervention referred to in subsection (5)(b) shall –

- (a) specify the objectives to be achieved for the child and the period within which they shall be achieved;

- (b) contain details of the services to be provided to the child and specify the person or organisation that shall provide those services; and
- (c) state the responsibilities of the child and the parent of the child, or such other responsible adult as may be specified in the plan.

(6) The probation officer shall record, with reasons, the outcome of the assessment and the decision made in accordance with subsection (3).

Section B – Assessment of Child Offenders

45. Assessment by probation officer

(1) Every child who is alleged to have committed an offence shall be assessed by a probation officer in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).

(2) Where a probation officer is notified by the police that a child has been served with a summons or arrested, the probation officer shall assess the child before the child appears before the Criminal Division of the Children's Court.

(3) Where a child under the age of 12 has been referred to a probation officer under section 44(1)(b), the probation officer shall, not later than 7 days after the child has been referred to him, conduct an assessment of the child.

(4) The purpose of assessing a child shall be to –

- (a) establish whether the child is in need of care and protection in order to refer the child to the Children's Court;
- (b) assess the age of the child if the age is uncertain;
- (c) formulate recommendations regarding the release or detention and placement of the child;
- (d) where appropriate, establish the prospects of the child to be enrolled into a diversion programme;

- (e) in the case of a child under the age of 12, establish the circumstances which led the child to commit the offence so as to be able to make a decision under section 44(3);
- (f) in the case of a child who is 12 or above but less than 14, assess the educational level, cognitive ability, domestic and environmental circumstances, age and maturity of the child for the purpose of section 49(2)(a);
- (g) determine whether the child has been used by an adult to commit the offence; and
- (h) provide any other relevant information regarding the child which the probation officer may consider to be in the best interests of the child or which may further any objective which this Act intends to achieve.

46. Confidentiality of information obtained during assessment

(1) Any information obtained during an assessment shall –

- (a) subject to subsection (2), remain confidential;
- (b) not be admissible as evidence during any bail application, plea, trial or sentencing proceedings in which a juvenile is charged as an offender or a child appears as an alleged victim or witness.

(2) Any information obtained during an assessment may only be used for the purpose specified in section 51(4).

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

47. Place where assessment to be conducted

(1) The assessment of a child may be conducted at any suitable place identified by the probation officer, which may include a room at a police station, the Children's Court or a hospital.

(2) The place identified pursuant to subsection (1) shall, as far as possible, be conducive to privacy.

48. Persons to attend assessment

(1) The parent of a child to be assessed shall attend the assessment of the child, unless he has been –

(a) exempted by the probation officer from attending; or

(b) excluded by the probation officer from attending because he has disrupted, undermined or obstructed the assessment or it is in the best interests of the child that he does not attend.

(2) A probation officer may allow any person whose presence is necessary or desirable for the assessment.

(3) A probation officer may, where there is any risk that the child may escape or endanger the safety of the probation officer or any other person, request a police officer to be present at the assessment.

(4) A probation officer may, where appropriate, elicit the views of the child in private regarding the presence of any person who is attending the assessment.

(5) (a) A probation officer shall make every effort to locate any of the parent of a child in order to conclude the assessment of the child and may request a police officer to assist in the location of that parent.

(b) A probation officer may conclude the assessment of a child in the absence of his parent where all reasonable efforts to locate the parent have failed or where the parent has been notified of the assessment and has failed to attend.

Sub-Part II – Juvenile Offenders

Section A – Discretion to Prosecute Juvenile Offender Aged 12 or Above But Below the Age of 14

49. Discretion to prosecute juvenile aged 12 or above but below the age of 14

(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall, in determining whether or not to prosecute a child aged 12 or above but below the age of 14, take into consideration –

- (a) the educational level, cognitive ability, domestic and environmental circumstances, age and maturity of the child;
- (b) the nature and seriousness of the offence;
- (c) the impact of the offence on any victim and the community;
- (d) the appropriateness of diversion; and
- (e) such other relevant factor as he may, in the circumstances, determine.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a), the Director of Public Prosecutions –

- (a) may call for an assessment of the child by a probation officer in accordance with section 45; and
- (b) may apply for an evaluation of the criminal capacity of the child in accordance with subsection (3).

(3) (a) A Magistrate of the Criminal Division of the Children's Court may, on his own motion, or at the request of the Director of Public Prosecutions or the child's legal representative, order an evaluation of the criminal capacity of a child aged 12 or above but below the age of 14 by a suitably qualified person.

(b) The evaluation referred to in paragraph (a) shall include an assessment of the cognitive, moral, emotional, psychological and social development of the child.

(c) A suitably qualified person referred to in paragraph (a) shall be a mental health professional, including a Government psychiatrist or psychologist of the Ministry.

(4) Where an order is made by the Magistrate under subsection (3), the person identified to conduct the evaluation of the criminal capacity of the child shall furnish the Magistrate with a written report of the evaluation not later than 30 days after the date of the order.

Section B – Best Interests of Juvenile Not to Be Prosecuted or Criminal Proceedings Against Juvenile to Be Discontinued

50. Juvenile not to be prosecuted or criminal proceedings against juvenile to be discontinued

(1) Notwithstanding section 49, where the Director of Public Prosecutions considers that it is in the best interests of a juvenile and in the public interest that –

- (a) the juvenile shall not be prosecuted for an offence; or
- (b) criminal proceedings instituted against the juvenile shall be discontinued, he shall request a probation officer to assess whether it is in the best interests of the juvenile to enrol in a diversion programme.

(2) (a) Where, further to a request made under subsection (1), the probation officer makes an assessment to the effect that enrolling in a diversion programme will be in the juvenile's best interests, the Director of Public Prosecutions may offer the juvenile to enrol in such programme.

(b) The probation officer shall make his assessment in a social enquiry report to the Director of Public Prosecutions not later than 21 days after the request is made.

(3) Where a probation officer makes an assessment to the effect that enrolling in a diversion programme will not be in the juvenile's best interests, the Director of Public Prosecutions may –

- (a) where criminal proceedings have not been instituted, institute criminal proceedings against the juvenile; or
- (b) where criminal proceedings have been instituted and discontinued, reinstitute criminal proceedings against the juvenile.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), the Director of Public Prosecutions shall not offer a juvenile to enrol in a diversion programme where –

- (a) the juvenile is suspected to have committed an offence under –
 - (i) section 215, 216, 217, 218, 220, 222, 223, 228(3), 229, 249 or 250 of the Criminal Code;
 - (ii) section 30 of the Dangerous Drugs Act; or
 - (iii) such other offence as may be prescribed; or
- (b) a probation officer makes an assessment to the effect that enrolling in a diversion programme will not be in the juvenile's best interests.

51. Diversion programme

(1) A diversion programme shall be an individualised non-residential supervision and rehabilitation scheme implemented by the Ministry responsible for the subject of probation and after care services for the purpose of rehabilitating the juvenile without resorting to formal criminal proceedings.

(2) A diversion programme may be implemented by an eligible provider, based on a contract between the Ministry responsible for the subject of probation and after care services and the eligible provider, and under the supervision of that Ministry.

(3) A diversion programme shall be an individualised programme to meet the specific needs of the juvenile and shall be conducted based on an individual diversion plan prepared by the officer assigned to the programme and approved by the Ministry responsible for the subject of probation and after care services.

(4) A diversion programme shall be for a defined period of time and shall not exceed 3 years in duration.

(5) (a) The progress of the juvenile in completing the requirements of the diversion programme shall be monitored by the officer assigned to the programme.

(b) Where the juvenile consistently demonstrates unwillingness to comply with the requirements of the diversion programme, the officer assigned to the programme shall refer the case to his supervisor and shall propose that the juvenile undergoes psychological assessment and such other evaluation as may be appropriate.

(c) Where any assessment or evaluation conducted under paragraph (b) concludes that continued participation in the diversion programme is not in the juvenile's best interests, the Ministry responsible for the subject of probation and after care services shall refer the assessment or evaluation to the Director of Public Prosecutions for the Director of Public Prosecutions to decide whether or not the criminal proceedings against the juvenile ought to be initiated or reinstated, as the case may be.

Section C – Detention of Juvenile Offenders

52. Pre-trial detention of juvenile offender

(1) Subject to any other enactment, pre-trial detention of a child shall, as far as possible, be imposed only as a measure of last resort.

(2) Whenever possible, pre-trial detention shall be replaced by alternative measures, such as release on parental recognisance or probationary supervision.

53. Bail or detention

(1) Where a juvenile is arrested with or without warrant and cannot be brought forthwith before a Court, the police officer in charge of the station to which that person is brought shall inquire into the case, and may release him on a recognisance being entered into by his parent, with or without sureties, for such an amount as shall, in the opinion of the officer, secure his attendance upon the hearing of the charge, and shall release him, unless

- (a) he has been arrested in relation to an offence under section 215, 216, 217, 218, 220, 222, 223, 228(3), 229, 249 or 250 of the Criminal Code or section 30 of the Dangerous Drugs Act; or
- (b) the officer has reason to believe that the release of the juvenile would defeat the ends of justice.

(2) Where a juvenile has been arrested and is not released, the police officer shall cause him to be detained in a place of remand until he may be brought before any Court unless the officer certifies that –

- (a) it is impracticable to do so;
- (b) he is of such bad character that he may not safely be so detained; or
- (c) by reason of his state of health or of his mental or bodily condition it is inadvisable so to detain him, and the certificate shall be produced to the Court.

(3) Where a juvenile is arrested, the police officer in charge of the station to which the juvenile is brought shall, immediately, take all reasonable steps to inform his parent of his arrest and the place where he may be seen by the parent.

54. Committal to custody in lieu of prison

(1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the Court on remanding or committing for trial a juvenile who is not released on bail, shall, instead of committing him to prison, commit him to custody in a place of remand and named in the commitment, to be detained for the period for which he is remanded or until he is released in due course of law.

(b) This section shall not affect any power of a Court under section 57 of the District and Intermediate Courts (Criminal Jurisdiction) Act, to commit a person who has attained the age of 16 to prison until the next Assizes.

(2) (a) A commitment under this section may be varied, or, in the case of a juvenile who proves to be of so bad a character that he may not be safely detained in a place of remand, or to be found not to be a fit person to be so detained, revoked by a Court.

(b) Where a commitment is revoked under paragraph (a), the juvenile may be committed to prison.

55. Separation of juvenile offender from adult

(1) The Commissioner of Police shall make arrangements to prevent a juvenile while –

- (a) detained in a police station;
- (b) being conveyed to and from any criminal Court;
- (c) waiting before or after attendance in any criminal Court, from associating with an adult, other than a relative, who is charged with any offence other than an offence with which the juvenile is jointly charged, or of which he has been jointly convicted.

(2) The Commissioner of Police shall ensure that a girl, being a juvenile, while so detained under subsection (1), whether being conveyed or waiting, is under the care of a police woman officer.

56. Attendance of parent

(1) Where a juvenile is charged with an offence or is for any other reason brought before a Court, his parent shall be required to attend at the Court before which the case is to be heard during all stages of the proceedings, unless the Court is satisfied that it would be unreasonable to require his attendance.

(2) Where a juvenile is arrested, the police officer by whom he is arrested, or the officer in charge of the police station to which he is brought, as the case may be, shall cause the parent of the juvenile where he can be found, to be warned to attend the Court before which the juvenile is to appear.

(3) For the purpose of enforcing the attendance of a parent and enabling him to take part in the proceedings and enabling orders to be made against him, the Court may issue a summons to the parent directing him to appear before it at a time and place specified, and, where the parent fails to appear in obedience to the summons, the Court may issue a warrant for his arrest.

(4) The attendance of the parent of a juvenile shall not be required under this section where the juvenile was, before the institution of the proceedings, removed from the custody or charge of his parent by an order of a Court.

Section D – Sentencing of Juvenile Offenders

57. Pre-sentence report

(1) Before deciding on how to deal with a juvenile who has been convicted of an offence other than a contravention, a Court shall require a probation officer to prepare a pre-sentence report regarding the best way to deal with the juvenile.

(2) A pre-sentence report shall be in writing and shall contain such information as to –

- (a) the juvenile, including his age, character, attitude, antecedents, home surroundings, school attendance and performance record, any employment history, medical history;
- (b) whether it is expedient or necessary for his reform that he should undergo a period of training in a Correctional Youth Centre or a Rehabilitation Youth Centre, as the case may be; and
- (c) such other matter as the Court thinks fit.

(3) The Court may, while any information required for the purpose of subsection (2) is being sought, or for the purpose of any special medical examination or observation, remand the juvenile to the appropriate institution.

(4) A copy of the pre-sentence report shall be given to the juvenile and his parent.

(5) The Court may, where a juvenile is convicted of an offence –

- (a) discharge the juvenile absolutely or conditionally in accordance with the Criminal Procedure Act;
- (b) order the offender to pay a fine and costs;
- (c) commit the juvenile to the care of his parent, close relative or other fit person and order the carer to give security for the good behaviour of the juvenile;
- (d) commit the juvenile to custody in a place of detention and training as provided under the Reform Institutions Act;
- (e) where it considers that an order under this subsection would not be appropriate in the circumstances, sentence him to undergo a term of imprisonment; or
- (f) deal with the case in any other manner in which it may be legally dealt with.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), where the Court is satisfied that it is necessary for the reform of a juvenile that he should undergo training in a reform institution for juveniles, it may direct that the juvenile be sent to that institution as appropriate.

(7) Subject to this section, any sentence of training in a reform institution for juveniles shall include supervision under section 49 of the Reform Institutions Act.

58. Punishment of certain serious crimes

- (1) Where a juvenile is convicted of –
 - (a) an offence under section 215, 216, 217, 218, 220, 222, 223, 228(3), 229, 249 or 250 of the Criminal Code;
 - (b) an offence under section 30 of the Dangerous Drugs Act; or
 - (c) an attempt or complicity in respect of any of the offence referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), and the Court is of opinion that none of the other methods in which the case may be legally dealt with is suitable, the Court may sentence the offender to be detained for such period as may be specified in the sentence.

(2) Where a sentence has been passed under subsection (1)(a), the juvenile shall, during that period, notwithstanding any other enactment Act, be liable to be detained in such place and on such conditions as the President may direct.

59. Probation orders

(1) (a) Where a juvenile is convicted of an offence, other than an offence under section 215, 216, 217, 218, 220, 222, 223, 228(3), 229, 249 or 250 of the Criminal Code or section 30 of the Dangerous Drugs Act, the Court may make an order discharging the juvenile conditionally on his parent entering into a recognisance, with or without sureties, to be of good behaviour and to appear for sentence when called upon during such period, not exceeding 3 years, as may be specified in the order.

(b) A recognisance entered into under this section shall, where the Court so orders, contain a condition that the juvenile be under the supervision of such person as may be named in the order during the period specified in the order, and such other conditions for securing such supervision as may be specified in the order.

(c) Nothing in this section shall affect the Criminal Procedure Act.

(2) The Court may, after notice to the juvenile's parent, vary the conditions of the recognisance and may, on being satisfied that the conduct of the juvenile has been such as to make it unnecessary that the recognisance remain in force, discharge the recognisance.

(3) (a) Where the Court is satisfied by information on oath that the juvenile has failed to observe any condition of his recognisance, it may issue a warrant for his arrest, or may, if it thinks fit, instead of issuing a warrant in the first instance, issue a summons to the juvenile, to any of his sureties, and to any person appointed to supervise the offender, requiring him or them to attend the Court and at such time as may be specified in the summons.

(b) The Court, on being satisfied that the juvenile has failed to observe any condition of his recognisance, may forthwith, without any further proof of his guilt, deal with the juvenile as for the original offence.

60. Restrictions on imprisonment of juvenile in default of payment of fine or costs

(1) A juvenile shall not be ordered to be imprisoned or sentenced to penal servitude for any offence, or be committed to prison in default of payment of a fine or costs.

(2) A juvenile shall not be ordered to be imprisoned for any offence, or be committed to prison in default of payment of a fine or costs, where he can be suitably dealt with in any other way, whether by recognisance to be of good behaviour and to appear for sentence when called upon, by committal to a place of detention or otherwise.

(3) A juvenile sentenced to imprisonment or committed to prison in default of payment of a fine or costs, shall not, as far as is practicable, be allowed to associate with adult prisoners.

61. Substitution of custody for imprisonment

Where a juvenile –

- (a) is convicted of an offence punishable, in the case of an adult, with penal servitude or imprisonment; or
- (b) would, if he were an adult, be liable to be imprisoned in default of payment of any fine or costs, the Court may, where it considers that none of the other methods in which the case may legally be dealt with is suitable, order that he be committed to custody in a place of detention provided under this Act and named in the order for such time as may be specified in such order, not exceeding the term for which he might, but for this Act, be ordered to be imprisoned or committed to prison, nor in any case exceeding 6 months.

62. Powers of Court

The Court may –

- (a) order that any juvenile found undergoing imprisonment shall be transferred to a Rehabilitation Youth Centre to be detained there for a period equal to that of the unexpired period of his sentence or until he has attained the age of 18, whichever is the shorter, or for any shorter period;
- (b) relieve any juvenile from the whole or any part of the period of detention in a Rehabilitation Youth Centre to which the juvenile has been adjudged.

63. Places of remand and of detention

(1) The Commissioner of Police shall, subject to the approval of the President notified in the Gazette, provide such places of remand and such places of detention as may be required for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The authority or persons responsible for the management of any institution other than a prison may, whether the institution is supported out of public funds or by voluntary contributions, but subject in the case of an institution supported out of public funds to the consent of the President, agree with the Commissioner of Police for the use of the institution or any part of it as a place of detention on such terms as may be agreed.

(3) In selecting the place of remand or the place of detention to which a juvenile is to be sent, the Court or police officer shall have regard, where practicable, to the religious belief of the juvenile.

(4) The President shall cause places of detention provided under this Act to be inspected and may make regulations in relation to –

- (a) the inspection of those places of detention;
- (b) the classification, treatment, employment and control of juveniles detained in custody in those places of detention; and
- (c) the visit of juveniles in detention.

64. Custody of juveniles

(1) The order or judgment in pursuance of which a juvenile is committed to custody in a place of detention provided under this Act shall be delivered with the juvenile to the person in charge of the place of detention and shall be sufficient authority for his detention in that place in accordance with its tenor.

(2) A juvenile who is detained in a place of remand or in a place of detention and whilst being conveyed to and from any such place shall be deemed to be in legal custody.

(3) A juvenile who escapes from legal custody may be arrested without warrant and any person who knowingly assists or induces a juvenile to escape or knowingly harbours or conceals a juvenile who has so escaped, or prevents him from returning, shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 100,000 rupees and imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

Sub-Part III – Guardian Ad Litem

65. Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem

(1) Where a child is a victim of, or witness in, a serious offence, including physical or sexual abuse, or where a child is an offender, the supervising officer may, where

- (a) there is a conflict of interest between the child victim and his parent;
- (b) there is a dispute of custody or visitation rights in relation to the child;
or
- (c) where no parent is available or is unwilling or unable to act in the best interest of the child, apply to the Protection Division of the Children’s Court for the appointment of a guardian ad litem for the victim, witness or offender.

(2) Where the Protection Division of the Children’s Court is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child to do so, it shall appoint a guardian ad litem.

(3) The guardian ad litem shall –

- (a) advocate for the child's best interests before a Court;

- (b) monitor the child's best interests, including any impact thereon caused by the involvement in the justice process, throughout the investigation and the judicial proceedings; and
- (c) make recommendations related to the child's best interests to the police, prosecutor and any other person or body in relation to any Court proceedings involving the child.

PART V – CHILDREN'S COURT

Sub-Part I – Establishment of Children's Court

66. Establishment of Children's Court

(1) There shall be a specialised Court to be known as the Children's Court, which shall be a Court of record and shall have an official seal.

(2) The Children's Court shall consist of –

- (a) a Civil Division;
- (b) a Protection Division; and
- (c) a Criminal Division.

(3) The Chief Justice shall designate, from among the Judges assigned to the Children's Court under section 70(1), a President of the Children's Court to preside over that Court.

67. Sitting of Court

The Children's Court shall sit in such place and at such time as the Chief Justice may direct.

68. Staff of Children's Court

The Master and Registrar shall post to the Children's Court such number of Court officers, Court Ushers and other public officers as may be required for the proper discharge of the Court's functions.

Sub-Part II – Civil Division, Protection Division and Criminal Division of Children’s Court

Section A – Civil Division of Children’s Court

69. Jurisdiction and proceedings before Civil Division

(1) The Civil Division of the Children’s Court shall, notwithstanding any other enactment, have, where children are involved, exclusive jurisdiction to try –

- (a) any action entered under the Code Civil Mauricien for adoption, sale of minor’s rights, ouverture de la tutelle, appointment of guardian and sub guardian, recherche de maternité, recherche de paternité and désaveu de paternité;
- (b) any other civil action as the Chief Justice may direct.

(2) Subject to this Act, and to any specific procedural provisions in any other enactment, all proceedings before the Civil Division of the Children’s Court shall be instituted and conducted in the same manner as proceedings in a civil matter before a Judge of the Supreme Court.

70. Judge of Civil Division

(1) The Chief Justice shall designate one or more Judges of the Supreme Court to exercise jurisdiction in the Civil Division of the Children’s Court.

(2) The designation of a Judge of the Supreme Court to the Civil Division of the Children’s Court shall not affect his –

- (a) tenure as a Judge of the Supreme Court; or
- (b) rank, title, status, remuneration or other rights or privileges as a Judge of the Supreme Court.

(3) A Judge of the Civil Division of the Children's Court shall have and exercise all powers conferred upon a Judge of the Supreme Court.

71. Appeal against decision of Civil Division

An appeal against a decision or order of the Civil Division of the Children's Court shall be made to the Court of Civil Appeal in the same manner specified in section 3 of the Court of Civil Appeal Act.

Section B – Protection Division of Children's Court

72. Jurisdiction and proceedings before Protection Division

(1) The Protection Division of the Children's Court shall, notwithstanding any other enactment, have exclusive jurisdiction to try any application under Part III.

(2) Subject to this Act, and to any specific procedural provisions in any other enactment, all proceedings before the Protection Division of the Children's Court shall be instituted and conducted in the same manner as proceedings in a civil matter before a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court.

73. Magistrate of Protection Division

(1) The Chief Justice shall designate one or more Magistrates of the Intermediate Court to exercise jurisdiction in the Protection Division.

(2) The designation of a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court to the Protection Division of the Children's Court shall not affect his –

(a) tenure as a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court; or

(b) rank, title, status, remuneration or other rights or privileges as a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court.

(3) A Magistrate of the Protection Division of the Children's Court shall have and exercise all powers conferred upon a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court.

74. Appeal against decision of Protection Division

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the supervising officer or the parent of a child may appeal to the Judge in Chambers against any order made by a Magistrate of the Protection Division of the Children's Court under section 34(4) or 36(4) or any variation made under section 34(5) or 36(5).

(2) Notwithstanding any other enactment, the Judge in Chambers may, upon the application in writing of any interested party, appoint a guardian ad hoc to appeal on behalf of the child.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), an appeal under subsection (1) shall be lodged within a period of 21 days of the making of the order.

(4) Where a guardian ad hoc has been appointed to appeal on behalf of the child, the Judge in Chambers may entertain an appeal lodged outside the time limit specified in subsection (3).

(5) An appeal under this section shall be made in the same manner as an application is made to a Judge in Chambers under the Supreme Court (Judge in Chambers) Rules 2002.

Section C – Criminal Division of Children's Court

75. Jurisdiction and proceedings before Criminal Division

(1) The Criminal Division of the Children's Court shall, notwithstanding any other enactment, have, where children are involved, exclusive jurisdiction to try –

- (a) in the case of a child victim, any of the following offences committed on the child –
 - (i) an offence committed under this Act;
 - (ii) an offence under section 228, 230, 231, 249, 250, 254, 260, 262, 303, 304, 305, 307, 310, 330, 331 or 343 of the Criminal Code;

- (iii) an offence under the Combatting of Trafficking in Persons Act;
or
 - (iv) an offence under the Protection from Domestic Violence Act;
- (b) in the case of a child witness, any of the following offences where the child is a witness thereto –
 - (i) an offence under this Act;
 - (ii) an offence under section 215, 216, 217, 218, 220, 222, 223, 228(3), 229, 230, 231, 249, 250, 303, 304, 305 or 310 of the Criminal Code;
 - (iii) an offence under the Combatting of Trafficking in Persons Act;
or
 - (iv) an offence under the Protection from Domestic Violence Act;
- (c) in the case of a juvenile offender, any criminal offence committed by the child, other than –
 - (i) an offence under section 215, 216, 217, 218, 220, 222, 223, 228(3), 229, 249 or 250 of the Criminal Code;
 - (ii) an offence under section 30 of the Dangerous Drugs Act;
 - (iii) an offence where the child is charged jointly with an adult;
 - (iv) such other offence as may be prescribed; or
- (d) such other case as the Director of Public Prosecutions may, depending on the seriousness of the case and where he considers it to be in the best interests of a child victim, child witness or juvenile offender, lodge before it.

(2) Subsection (1)(c) shall apply where the offender, when formally charged before the Criminal Division of the Children's Court, is still a juvenile.

(3) A Magistrate of the Criminal Division of the Children's Court shall, where children are involved, have jurisdiction to hold a preliminary inquiry in relation to offences specified in section 116(2) of the Courts Act.

(4) Subject to this Act, and to any specific procedural provisions in any other enactment, all proceedings before the Criminal Division of the Children's Court shall be instituted and conducted in the same manner as proceedings in a criminal matter before a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court.

76. Magistrate of Criminal Division

(1) The Chief Justice shall designate one or more Magistrates of the Intermediate Court to exercise jurisdiction in the Criminal Division of the Children's Court.

(2) The designation of a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court to the Criminal Division of the Children's Court shall not affect his –

(a) tenure as a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court; or

(b) rank, title, status, remuneration or other rights or privileges as a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court.

(3) A Magistrate of the Criminal Division of the Children's Court shall have and exercise all powers conferred upon a Magistrate of the Intermediate Court.

77. Prosecution for rape or sodomy on child

Where a person is prosecuted for the offence of rape under section 249(1) of the Criminal Code or for sodomy under section 250 of the Criminal Code on a child, the case shall be heard –

(a) by 2 Magistrates of the Criminal Division of the Children's Court; or

- (b) where the President of the Children's Court so directs, by more than 2 Magistrates.

78. Appeal against decision of Criminal Division
