1. The Examinations will consist of SEVEN written papers.

   (1) The written papers will ALL be of three (3) hours and will be on the following subjects:

   PAPER I - CIVIL PROCEDURE AND FAMILY LAW
   PAPER II – COMMERCIAL AND BUSINESS LAW
   PAPER III - LAW OF IMMOVABLE PROPERTY
   PAPER IV - DRAFTING
   PAPER V - REVENUE AND TAXATION LAWS
   PAPER VI - OPINION WRITING
   PAPER VII - RESPONSABILITÉ NOTARIALE AND TENUE DE L’OFFICE NOTARIALE.

   (2) Candidates will be expected to deal with Ethical issues in any of the Papers.

   (3) Paper I will be divided into TWO parts: Part I on Civil Procedure and Part II on Family Law. Part I and Part II will each contain 4 questions out of which 2 must be answered.

   (4) Paper II will be divided into TWO parts: Part I on Company Law and Part II on Commercial and Financial Law.

   Part I will contain FOUR questions out of which TWO must be answered. Part II will contain FOUR questions out of which TWO must to be answered.

   (5) In each of Papers III, V and VII, there will be FOUR questions to be answered out of SIX.

   (6) Paper IV and Paper VI will each contain 5 questions out of which 3 have to be answered.

   (7) For Paper IV, the candidates will be expected to draft a variety of deeds.

2. At the start of each written paper, candidates will be allowed ten minutes to study the question paper before they start writing.
3. Questions in all the SEVEN PAPERS may be in one or more PARTS and may contain COMPULSORY questions.

4. All papers will be marked each on 100.

5. Questions will be set on the law in force as at 30 June 2019.

6. (1) To pass in a paper, a candidate will have to score at least 50% of the marks.

However, to succeed in an examination, the candidate must score at least 60% of the aggregate marks in respect of the SEVEN PAPERS.

The grades will be marked as follows:

Grade A : 70% or more
Grade B : 60% or more but less than 70%
Grade C : 50% or more but less than 60%
Grade D : 40% or more but less than 50%
Grade E : Less than 40%

The percentage referred to here shall be a percentage of the total marks allotted in respect of a particular paper.

(2) Candidates obtaining 80% or more of the aggregate of marks in all the papers at one and the same sitting will obtain a Honours Certificate. The other successful candidates obtaining 60% or more of the aggregate of marks but less than 80% will obtain a pass certificate.

(3) A candidate will be allowed to a resit in only two papers provided that he/she:-

(a) obtains the minimum overall percentage of 60%; and

(b) secures at least 40% in the paper(s); and

(c) passes in the other five papers,

If the candidate secures at least a pass (50%) in the papers in which he has been allowed a resit, he will be deemed to have passed the whole examination, failing which, he will be required to sit for the whole examination.

(4) A candidate will be given his grades only and on no account will the candidate be entitled to have his marks.

(5) Subject to the payment of the prescribed fees, a candidate, who is allowed to resit a paper, shall resit the examination at such time as the Council may decide except where he is allowed by the Council to take his resit at the next annual examination.

(6) A candidate may, within 15 days of the publication of the examination results and on payment of the prescribed fee, apply to the Secretary of the Council for a review in respect of any examination paper other than the oral test.
7. (1) Except on good cause, no candidate will be allowed to enter the examination room more than 15 minutes after a written examination has started or to leave the room until 15 minutes before the examination is due to end.

(2) Candidates should write their index numbers on the top right-hand corner of every sheet on which they answer. Otherwise the scripts should contain no word, mark or writing other than the actual answers to the questions and the numbers thereof.

(3) Where a candidate attempts a question containing two or more parts, the answer to each part should begin on a fresh sheet.

(4) Candidates must, before they take their seats, leave all their personal belongings with the invigilators. They must, on handing in their scripts, return to the invigilators every sheet of paper, marked or unmarked, which they have used during the examination.

8. No candidate will be allowed more than SIX ATTEMPTS. These six attempts should be made within an overall period of not more than six years from the first attempt at the Vocational Examinations unless on good cause shown to the satisfaction of the Council, the period may be extended.

9. (a) Subject to paragraph (b), no candidate will be allowed to register for a vocational examination if his/her attendance during the vocational course provided by the accredited person is less than 80%.

(b) On good cause shown, the Council may, subject to conditions, exempt a candidate who is a repeater from the need of complying with paragraph (a).

10. (a) No mobile phones or any other communication/electronic device should be brought inside the examination rooms. Candidates are forbidden to take to their desk or make use of any unauthorised material including books, manuscripts, papers, articles or notes of any kind, or any case, bag or other container in which books, manuscripts, papers or other unauthorised material can be carried including any equipment, apparatus or technological device in the examination room.

(b) Any candidate found to be in breach of any of the above provisions would be disqualified from taking part in the Vocational Examinations.

11. Any candidate who fails or omits to comply with any rule or instruction issued by or on behalf of the Council with regard to the conduct of the Vocational Examinations may at any stage of the examinations be disqualified from taking part in the examinations.

JULY 2019